

Answer the following in complete sentences on a separate sheet of paper.

1. What is the title of your textbook?
2. How many chapters are in your book?
3. What do you find starting on page xviii?
4. How does it say you should use this information?
5. Which set(s) will be covered in chapter 2?
6. Turn to page 2. What should you do before you read?
 - a. What two ways can you identify the key concepts?
 - b. Where will you find additional help as you practice your math skills?
 - c. What is the purpose of the conceptual problems?
 - d. What will help you assess your understanding?
 - e. What is the purpose of the photos in the book?
 - f. What is the purpose of the diagrams in the book?
7. What do you find at the end of section 1.1?
8. Find the start of each section in Chapter 1. What do they have in common?
9. Where are the key concepts of Chapter 1 reviewed?
10. Why do you think they put the page number after the vocabulary terms?
11. What categories of questions are at the end of the chapter?
12. Turn to page R46 at the end of the book. What do you find there?
13. Turn to page R56. What do you find there?
14. Turn to page R82. What do you find there?
15. How can this section help you learn?
16. Where does the glossary start?
17. What are the numbers in the definition?
18. Where does the index start?
19. What is the difference between the glossary and the index?